JUDGMENT

There is no representation for the petitioner. The grievance of the petitioner is that Ext.P1 complaint lodged before the J.F.C.M., Vaikom, which was referred to the police under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C., has not evoked any useful or effective action on the part of the police. He laments that no action was taken.

2. The learned Prosecutor, on instructions, submits that the submissions made in the petition are not correct. Crime No.340 of 2003 of Vaikom Police Station was registered on receipt of the complaint under Section 156(3) Cr.P.C. Investigation has been conducted. Conclusions have been reached. The conclusions are not in favour of the petitioner. A negative final report (refer report) has already been filed after giving due notice to the petitioner. If the petitioner is aggrieved, he has to raise necessary objections before the learned Magistrate or file a protest complaint in his discretion. There is no merit in the attempt made to complain that there is no proper action on the part of the Investigating Officer.

2. In the light of the submissions made by the learned Prosecutor, I am satisfied that no further reliefs need be granted in this petition. This writ petition is accordingly dismissed.
